Museum's Family Day is back in September

PORTLAND, Ore. – Join Washington County Museum staff, volunteers and Print Arts Northwest for hands-on history and art activities for the whole family. Bring the kids Sept. 10 and dive into a book-making project, pioneer toys and more.

Family Day is held monthly on the second Saturday at the Museum from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The Museum is located on the PCC-Rock Creek Campus, 17677 NW Springville Road.

The monthly event is open to the public; no reservations required. And it's free!

For a complete Family Day schedule, go online to www.WashingtonCountyMuseum.org.

Family Day is sponsored by Print Arts Northwest, PGE Foundation and Beaverton Bakery.

About: The Washington County Museum is a cultural leader that serves to preserve our heritage and foster understanding of our shared future. The Museum offers unparalleled opportunities to experience and understand the complexity and richness of Washington County.
